

EXHIBIT A

EXHIBIT AW. R. Grace & Co., et al., District of Delaware, Bankruptcy Case No. 01-1139Report on Settlements of Certain Claims and Causes of Action October 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005

Grandview Legion Housing Society and British Columbia Housing Managing Commission Kuhn & Company, Legal Counsel 300-31935 South Fraser Way Abbotsford, B.C. V2T 5N7	Sealed Air (Canada) Inc. Thomas S. Woods Lawson Lundell LLP 1600 Cathedral Place 925 West Georgia Street Vancouver, B.C. V6C 3L2	Grandview Legion Housing Society et al. v. John Kerrigan Sproule/Architecture, et al. , Supreme Court of British Columbia, No. S75105 New Westminster Registry. One of seven "leaky condo" cases in British Columbia, it was alleged that Sealed Air (Grace was substituted as the proper party in interest) manufactured, supplied and supervised the installation of waterproofing membranes that were defective. As a result of mediation, the case was settled as to Grace for a total of $5,000 Canadian.
--	---	--